

Multi-Generational Leadership

Equipping the world's most influential families to shape the 21st Century

Advisory Group

The Multi-Generational Leadership programme is informed by an exclusive advisory group of international experts

Paul Begley, Chair
Director, Strategy Programmes, University of Cambridge Institute for Sustainability Leadership

Dr Hamed Bin Mohamed Khalifa Al Suwaidi
Founder of The Abu Dhabi Arts Society, the Al Suwaidi Foundation and Ousha Bint Khalifa Al Suwaidi Foundation

Zoë Arden
Fellow, University of Cambridge Institute for Sustainability Leadership (CISL) and SustainAbility

Marcus Bleasdale
Managing Director, Wilstar

Anton Cartwright
Senior Associate, University of Cambridge Institute for Sustainability Leadership (CISL)

Ian Ellison
Fellow, University of Cambridge Institute for Sustainability Leadership (CISL)

Founding advisors

Iraj Ispahani
CEO, Ispahani Advisory Ltd

Philip Marcovici
Principal, The Offices of Philip Marcovici Limited

Alison Fort
Chief Executive Officer, Katapult Foundation, Impact Partner at Katapult, Board Member Toniic

Maysa Jalbout
Special Advisory on the UN Sustainable Development Goals, MIT, former Founding CEO of the Queen Rania Foundation for Education and Development

Guy Morgan
Sustainability Director, CHANEL Fashion

Clare Woodcraft
Executive Director, Centre for Strategic Philanthropy, University of Cambridge

UNIVERSITY OF
CAMBRIDGE

INSTITUTE FOR SUSTAINABILITY LEADERSHIP

www.cisl.cam.ac.uk

@cisl_cambridge

Find out more

To learn more about Multi-Generational Leadership:
Equipping the world's most influential families to shape the 21st Century, please contact:
nicole.gray@cisl.cam.ac.uk